Easy Recording

Easy Reporting

Easy Transcribing

The Problem: Electronic Court Reporters work on tight time schedules moving from job-to-job each day. You need the right tools to travel, setup your recording equipment quickly and be ready to report in a matter of minutes.

The Solution: We start with the Veri-Core Mobile Recorder on Wheels (MROW). The MROW features a lightweight rolling case for all your equipment, a portable laptop table, and a 4 channel digital audio interface, cables and microphones. The customized system comes with an intuitive touchscreen laptop. Now the Reporter has just the right tools to capture and deliver the Record, on time, every time!

The Configuration:

- Veri-Core Mobile Recorder on Wheels (MROW)
- HP Touchsmart Laptop
- Optional 8 channel digital recorder and audio components
- Optional video package
